Comments	I am of the view that the staff recommendation regarding this bylaw were correct and the 7-2 Council vote against the staff recommendation was wrong. Staff clearly studied the issue, understood the concerns of residents and made helpful recommendations. Richmond's bylaws for single family dwellings are by far the most builder-friendly/neighbourhood-unfriendly in the Lower Mainland. The staff recommendations would have gone a small way toward correcting this imbalance. The 7 who voted against it have shown a clear preference for the interests of the builders over the residents and are perpetuating Richmond's slide into a collection of soulless, overbuilt silos
