Staff Report

Origin

1. Purpose

The purpose of this report is to advise Council regarding a Provincial legal requirement concerning the proposed casino relocation in Richmond.

The BC Gaming Control Act and Regulations, and the Provincial Government's July 25, 2002 policy regarding the Casino Relocation Process apply.

The City has been advised by the British Columbia Lottery Corporation (BCLC) of the need to consult with immediately adjacent municipalities and First Nations regarding the proposed casino relocation (see Attachment 1).

2. Affected Parties

The Affected Parties with which Richmond is to consult are those municipalities which are immediately adjacent to Richmond and the affected First Nations, namely:

- (1) Burnaby,
- (2) Delta,
- (3) New Westminster,
- (4) Vancouver, and
- (5) the Musqueam First Nation.

3. Proposed Affect Party Consultation Program

In consultation with the BCLC, a Consultation Program is proposed (see Attachment 2).

The purpose of the Consultation Program is to enable Richmond to:

- (i.) meet the legal requirements of the BC Gaming Control Act, Regulations and policies
- (ii.) inform the Affected Parties of the proposed casino relocation in Richmond
- (iii.) enable the Affected Parties to:
 - identify how they may be "materially affected" by the proposed casino relocation, and
 - raise any concerns with Richmond
- (iv.) provide an opportunity for Richmond to address those concerns
- (v.) enable Richmond to advise the BCLC of its success in meeting the consultation requirements
- (vi.) provide an appeal process for Affected Parties
- (vii.) if necessary, provide for a BCLC appointed arbitrator and a non-binding dispute resolution process to address any unresolved matters, if the City and any Affected Parties cannot resolve them on their own.

4. What Concerns Are To Be Addressed?

Defining "Materially Affected" - (BC Gaming Control Act and Regulations)

"Materially affected" means a likelihood that the affected Parties will:

1. incur significant new:
 - infrastructure, or
 - policing costs
2. experience increased traffic with a significant impact on its highways, or
3. experience a significant adverse impact on the amenities and character of one or more of its neighbourhoods.

Given the focus of these consultations, any concerns which may be raised would be considered to be mainly technical in nature (e.g., traffic). As such, staff anticipate that any raised concerns can be satisfactorily addressed.

5. What Is Not the Subject of the Affected Party Consultation?

This means that matters relating to:

- whether not Richmond should establish a relocated casino with slots,
 - the financial impact of the proposed casino relocation on other municipalities and First Nations, and
 - on the moral merits of relocating a casino with slots,
- are not the subject of the proposed consultation exercise.

This focus has been verified with the BCLC.

Analysis

The BC Gaming Control Act, Regulations and related policies establish the gaming requirements in British Columbia.

To date, Richmond has held public consultations regarding the proposed casino relocation, as follows:

- in May 29 and June 3, 2002 - regarding the City's casino policy change, and
- in May 12, 2003 - the public hearing process regarding the casino relocation rezoning.

In addition, Richmond must now consult with immediately adjacent municipalities and First Nations to determine if they think that they will be "materially affected" by the proposal casino relocation.

Adjacent municipality and First Nations consultations were not conducted before with this "materially affected" focus, because Richmond considered that it had met all the requirements. In conducting a review to make sure that everything is in order, the BCLC has now identified the need to consult with immediately adjacent municipalities and First Nations. Some of the confusion appears to have been caused by changing legislation and policies, and their application (e.g., from April - August 2002, the Province changed the Provincial Gaming Control Act and Regulations. As well, in July 25, 2002, the Province established the Casino Relocation Process, after Richmond had already changed its gaming policy a month earlier in June 2002).

The recommended Consultation Process has been established in discussion with the BCLC, to ensure that it is adequate.

City staff will work diligently and quickly to address all concerns, so as to avoid delays.

This appears to be the only outstanding consultation requirement.

Financial Impact

The required consultation can be conducted within the City's approved 2003 budget.

Conclusion

The City has been advised of the Provincial legal requirement to consult with immediately adjacent municipalities and the Musqueam First Nation concerning matters of their likelihood of being materially affected, regarding the proposed casino relocation.

A Consultation Program is proposed.

Dear Mr. McLellan:

Re: Relocation Requirements – Richmond Casino

As you are aware as part of a settlement agreement between British Columbia Lottery Corporation (BCLC), Great Canadian Gaming Corporation (GCGC) and the Province, BCLC has authority to relocate the Richmond Casino within the City of Richmond as a full service casino subject to approval from the City of Richmond.

As part of any relocation of the Richmond Casino to the Bridgepoint Market property, BCLC must receive the written approval of the City of Richmond in the form required under the Gaming Control Act (BC) (GCA). In this regard we have attached for your reference a copy of Section 19 of the GCA and Section 13 of the regulations under the GCA which set forth the statutory requirements for this approval.

With respect to obtaining the approval of the City of Richmond as described above, BCLC plans to follow a process generally similar to the process described in Parts 2, 3 and 4 of BCLC's Casino Relocation Process for Community Casinos dated July 25, 2002 (copy attached). Part 2 of the process incorporates the statutory requirements for approval as described above as well as some additional administrative requirements. Section 3 of the Relocation Process generally describes the process to be followed if there is an objection received from a neighboring local government as referred to in Section 21 of the GCA.

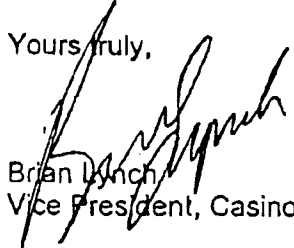

BCLC will not make its final decision regarding the Richmond relocation until it has received the approval of the City of Richmond in the required form.

CASINO RELOCATION PROCESS FOR COMMUNITY CASINOS ELIGIBLE TO RELOCATE OR EXPAND CAPACITY

The Province has determined that four community casinos (Royal Diamond, Vancouver; Royal Towers, New Westminster; The Grand, Vancouver; and Casino Hollywood, Prince George) are eligible to relocate to or to relocate/expand within a willing host local government and may acquire additional slot machines (to a maximum of 300) as part of that process.

The Province has established a broad framework for the relocation of, or changes to, an existing gaming facility which includes:

- a. a requirement for host local government support for a relocated casino or expansion of the capacity of an existing casino;
- b. the opportunity for public input into the decision-making process; and
- c. a requirement for dispute resolution if a host local government experiences a problem with a neighbouring local government.

British Columbia Lottery Corporation (BCLC) will initiate and manage the relocation of the four eligible casinos through an open process, based on business case principles, within government's broad framework. Management of this process and the final decisions rest with BCLC.

This document is intended to describe in general terms the process which BCLC will implement for the relocation of each of the eligible casinos. All relocations will be completed in accordance with the relevant provisions of the new Gaming Control Act (BC) and any related regulations.

1. Market Analysis and Selection of Service Provider and Site

BCLC has completed a casino marketplace analysis and has determined that the Lower Mainland and the Prince George area offer the best marketplace opportunities for the four casinos to be relocated. As a result, BCLC intends to relocate the three existing eligible Lower Mainland Casinos within the Lower Mainland and the Hollywood Casino in Prince George within the Prince George area. Through market analysis BCLC has also identified preferred market areas in the Lower Mainland to relocate the three eligible Lower Mainland casinos to best service the marketplace.

To begin the process the Corporation will notify municipalities, regional districts and First Nations with authority over land use planning (referred to as local governments) within a preferred market area of its desire to potentially relocate a casino into the area and will request that those local governments within the preferred market area which are interested in hosting a relocated casino notify the Corporation of such interest within 45 days. BCLC will accept such notification in a variety of formats including by way of correspondence, facsimile transmission or e-mail. The Corporation will be available to meet with interested local governments in the preferred market areas to provide information on the process and discuss matters such as potential sites and the local government's desired method of consultation and public input if selected.

Following receipt of the notices from local governments in the preferred market area of their willingness to host an eligible casino, BCLC will consider and evaluate some potential sites in the preferred market area. As a part of this evaluation a preferred host local government whose jurisdiction contains sites acceptable to BCLC that has indicated a willingness to host a relocated casino will be selected by the Corporation based on factors such as:

- ▶ Marketplace analysis;
- ▶ Business case analysis;
- ▶ Site selection criteria (see attached); and
- ▶ Anticipated timeframe for the opening of a relocated casino.

The Corporation will then notify the casino service providers at the casinos eligible to be relocated (referred to as service providers) of the preferred host local government selected by BCLC for a relocated casino and the scope of the casino project desired by BCLC. BCLC will request that the service providers notify BCLC within a specified time period whether they are interested in providing operational services at the relocated casino. If a service provider is interested in providing operational services at the relocated casino, the service provider must submit to BCLC a preliminary business plan for a relocated casino, within the timeframe specified by BCLC, for a casino project in the preferred host local government's jurisdiction which meets BCLC's objectives with respect to the scope of the casino project desired.

The Corporation will then select a service provider for the relocated casino based primarily upon the following criteria:

- ▶ BCLC's business case analysis;
- ▶ A preliminary business plan which satisfies BCLC's objectives with respect to the scope of the project to be developed;
- ▶ The attractiveness of the business plan proposal to BCLC and the preferred host local government; and
- ▶ Demonstrated ability by the service provider to finance the project at a level acceptable to the Corporation.

Following the selection of a preferred host local government and the proposed service provider, a detailed proposal for the relocated casino must be developed by the selected service provider which is satisfactory to both BCLC and the preferred host local government. BCLC will then publicly announce the preferred host local government, the proposed site and the service provider selected and will request the preferred host local government to undertake a public consultation process and provide final approval.

2. Local Government Process For Approval And Public Input

After a detailed proposal has been received from the service provider, the preferred host local government will have up to 120 days to provide BCLC with its approval to host the proposed relocated casino. Prior to providing its approval to BCLC, the preferred host local government must undertake a public consultation process which allows the opportunity for broad based community input. This public consultation process must include public notice of the proposal and particulars of the proposal and provide an opportunity for residents and representatives to provide comments, information and representations concerning the proposal. The specific process to be used will be determined by the preferred host local government and must be undertaken in accordance with any requirements set forth under applicable law.

The preferred host local government must also consult each municipality, regional district or First Nation that is immediately adjacent or that BCLC considers may be materially affected.

Following completion of the public consultation process, the preferred host local government must notify BCLC whether it is prepared to approve BCLC's proposed casino relocation and become the host local government for the relocated casino. The approval must be in the form of a properly executed resolution or a letter on official letterhead and delivered to BCLC and the Gaming Policy and Enforcement Branch (GPEB) and must include at least the following:

- ▶ The effective date of the approval;
- ▶ The identity of any local government that may be materially affected;
- ▶ Confirmation that immediately adjacent local governments have been consulted;
- ▶ A summary of the outcome of the consultations described above; and
- ▶ Confirmation of the manner in which community input was obtained.

The form of approval must also meet any other requirements set forth under applicable law. A copy of the approval must also be provided to all immediately adjacent local governments. If the preferred host local government is not prepared to approve BCLC's proposed casino relocation then the relocation process will terminate with respect to that local government.

3. Objection by Neighbouring Local Government and Dispute Resolution Process

If the objections of the local government of a municipality, regional district or First Nation which is immediately adjacent to the preferred host local government are not resolved during the period of the public consultation process referred to above, then the neighbouring local government may file a written objection with BCLC to the proposed relocated casino, setting out how the objector will be materially affected. The written objection must be filed within 10 days after BCLC receives the approval of the preferred host local government as described in paragraph 2. To be materially affected the objector must be able to demonstrate that if the proposed relocation is completed there is a likelihood that the objector will incur significant new infrastructure or policing costs, experience increased traffic with a significant impact on its highways or experience a significant adverse impact on the amenities and character of one or more of its neighbourhoods.

If BCLC receives an objection within the proper time period, then BCLC will require the preferred host local government and the objector to participate in a non-binding resolution process in the manner specified by BCLC.

The results of any non-binding dispute resolution process must be reported to BCLC and will be considered by BCLC before it makes a final decision about the relocation of the eligible casino in question.

4. Final Decision on Relocation of an Eligible Casino

Prior to making a final decision about the proposed relocation of the eligible casino to a site within the preferred host local government's jurisdiction, BCLC must be satisfied that the preferred host local government has undertaken a public consultation process. In addition, if the preferred host local government's approval is conditional, BCLC will review the conditions with the proposed casino service provider to ensure that the conditions satisfy all parties. BCLC will then make a final decision about whether to relocate the casino to the site within the preferred local government's jurisdiction and will publicly announce its decision.

BCLC will then work with the selected casino service provider to implement the relocation of the casino to the proposed new site.
