Staff Report

Origin

Permissive exemptions are provided to various properties in accordance with sections 220 and 224 of the Community Charter and Council Policy 3561. The exemption bylaw must be adopted by October 31st of each year to be effective for the following year.

Analysis

Owners of exempted properties in 2005 were contacted and verified of their eligibility for continued exemption in the coming year. Changes to the 2005 bylaw are listed in Appendix I.

Two properties have been removed from the bylaw as both properties are sold and will no longer qualify for exemptions.

Of the three new properties added, two are City owned properties leased to Non-Profit Organizations that have been made taxable by BC Assessment. As they qualify for exemptions under item (2) of Council policy 3561, and that the City is responsible for the taxes, they have been included in the exemption bylaw.

Each year, the City receives numerous new applications for permissive exemptions. This year, three new requests were submitted and were not included in the bylaw for the following reasons:

- World Harvest Church – property does not have the appropriate zoning required for assembly.
- Dorcas Family Ministry – Organization is an NPO and does not meet the requirements as set out in Council policy 3561.
- BC SPCA – The new agreement signed by the City and BC SPCA with regards to the contracting of their services in Richmond clearly states that in return for the payments made to SPCA by the City, SPCA must provide the agreed upon services and is solely responsible for all operating expenses included property taxes.

Staff continues to monitor the properties on No. 5 Road to ensure that they are meeting the requirements to farm the backlands. Staff findings are listing in Appendix II.

Financial Impact

Property tax exemptions impact City finances by reducing the total assessed value of properties subject to taxation and resulting in the City recovering the loss through tax increases to the other general taxpayers.

Church properties represent the largest number of permissively exempted properties and accounts for approximately $142,000 in direct municipal taxes waived in 2005. Other exempted properties on the bylaw accounted for approximately $371,000 in direct municipal taxes waived for a total of approximately $513,000 for 2005.

Conclusion

Bylaw 7968 will provide tax exemptions in accordance with Provincial legislation and Council policy.
