Staff Report

Origin

Permissive tax exemptions are provided to various types of properties in accordance with sections 339 to 341, inclusive, of the Local Government Act, and Council Policy 3561. Exemption bylaws must be adopted by October 31st to be effective for the following year.

Analysis

Owners of properties eligible for statutory tax exemption were asked to complete a questionnaire confirming continued eligibility for tax exemption status in the coming year. All questionnaires have been reviewed and those properties meeting the eligibility criteria have been listed in Bylaw No 7433. Amendments to the bylaw were made per Appendix I.

Under Council direction, a number of religious properties on No 5 Road were sent a letter on July 30th requesting for response in writing as to whether they intend to farm the backlands. All properties contacted have responded and Appendix II provides a summary of their plans. This plan should be used as a reference and the farming activities on these properties monitored in order to assess eligibility for future permissive exemptions.

Financial Impact

Property tax exemptions have an impact on City finances. Exemptions reduce the total assessed value of properties subject to taxation. Church properties represent the largest number of tax-exempted properties and accounts for approximately $189,000 in direct municipal taxes in 2002. Other tax-exempted properties on the permissive tax exemption bylaw in 2002 accounted for about $1,337,000 in direct municipal taxes for a total of about $1,526,000. The City recovers these amounts through taxation on other properties.

Conclusion

Property tax exemptions are provided by Council in accordance with Section 339 to 341 of the Municipal Act and Council Policy 3561. Bylaw 7433 will provide tax exemptions in accordance with provincial legislation and current Council Guidelines
