Dear Mr. David Weber:

I am writing regarding the Zoning Amendment Bylaw 7905 (RZ 03-236490). I doubt the applicant Mei L'an Li is the owner of 4680 Blundell Road house and she will obey the law or bylaw. Here is why I have this concern:

My family with me lived in 4680 Blundell from June 2002 to August 29, 2003. I had a rent agreement with Mei L'an Li. In that paper, she said she was the owner of the house. Everything looked fine, until that day when we wanted to move came. We notified her 23 days ahead the date we wanted moving. In fact she found the new tenant in time, in order to satisfy the new tenant, she also asked me to move out one day earlier. We did that. But by the time when we wanted our security deposit back, she had excuse first, then she did not answer my call, no sooner later she changed her phone No. I had to ask for arbitration from the Residential Tenancy Office. But my registered mail for her which had the hearing notice in it was returned three times. Thus my security deposit I never got it back.

I don't know how I can have my money back when I am not able to get hold of her again. But if this house is rezoned, my right to have my money back may never exit.

Thank you taking my concern. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate call me at (604) 271-6156 or mail me 209-8120 Colonial Drive, Richmond V7C 4V2

Yours truly,

Yours truly,
