Staff Report

Origin

On World Refugee Day 2018, the United Nations High Commission for Refugees (UNHCR) launched the Cities #WithRefugees campaign that invited cities from all over the world who are working to promote inclusion, support refugees and bring communities together, to sign a statement of solidarity for refugees (Attachment 1). This global initiative seeks to amplify the efforts of cities who are creating inclusive communities where everyone can live in safety and contribute to and participate in their local community. Over 200 cities have endorsed the statement, including 15 Canadian cities such as Vancouver, Surrey, Port Moody, Toronto, and Victoria.

This report supports Council's Strategic Plan 2018-2022 Strategy #3 – One Community Together:

Vibrant and diverse arts and cultural activities and opportunities for community engagement and connection.

This report supports the Social Development Strategy 2013 – 2022 Strategic Direction #5 – Build on Richmond's Cultural Diversity:

19.1 Encouraging collaborative approaches to ensure that Richmond remains a welcoming and integrated community, while respecting the desires of immigrant groups to maintain their own cultures.

This report supports the Cultural Harmony Plan 2019–2029 Strategic Direction #4 – Communication and Community Engagement:

4.5 Develop and implement an awareness campaign about the benefits of an inclusive community and recognize the contributions long-time residents and recent immigrants have made to Richmond's vibrant community.

Findings of Fact

The Cities #WithRefugees statement of solidarity describes the important role cities play in creating inclusive communities for refugees who are forced to flee their countries to escape violence and persecution. With nearly two out of three refugees settling in an urban area, cities are at the forefront of the refugee crisis. Welcoming refugees creates opportunities for economic, civic, and social growth as communities benefit from the diversity of experiences and ideas refugees bring. As cities continue to improve their infrastructure, services, and administrative systems to incorporate large inflows of new residents, cities must create spaces where everyone can feel safe, become self-reliant and participate in all aspects of their community. The statement concludes with a call to join UNHCR and 200 other countries to stand #WithRefugees. No additional activities by the City are required to be a part of this campaign.

Collaboration and Partnerships

The City actively participates in Richmond's Community Collaboration Table, also known as Richmond's Local Immigration Partnership (LIP), to enhance collaboration, coordination and strategic planning at the community level in order to foster welcoming and inclusive communities and improve settlement and integration outcomes for immigrants and refugees. The City is also a member of the Inter-Government Committee on Settlement which is composed of federal, provincial and local staff representatives to discuss emerging issues related to immigrant and refugee settlement and integration. This ensures that proper supports are in place for newcomers and the service system is working collaboratively to identify and address any needs as they arise.

Alignment with the Council-adopted Cultural Harmony Plan 2019–2029

City Council adopted the Cultural Harmony Plan 2019–2029 on November 25, 2019. The purpose of this ten-year plan is to identify innovative and collaborative approaches to strengthen intercultural connections among Richmond residents, provide City programs and services that address the needs of the city's diverse population, and remove barriers to participation for Richmond residents. One of the priority actions in this plan is to develop and implement an awareness campaign about the benefits of an inclusive community and recognize the contributions of long-time residents and recent immigrants to Richmond's vibrant community. By signing the Cities #WithRefugees pledge, the City is demonstrating its commitment to raising awareness of the plight of refugees around the world and the value they bring to cities such as Richmond.

Financial Impact

None.

Conclusion

The UNHCR Cities #WithRefugees Campaign seeks to raise awareness of the 71 million refugees around the world and the benefits they bring to their local communities. The City's participation in this campaign is an acknowledgement of our values and is in line with the work the City is already undertaking, particularly the adoption of the Cultural Harmony Plan 2019–2029. The plan demonstrates the City's commitment in building a welcoming and inclusive community for all Richmond residents. The City can further demonstrate this commitment by joining in a statement of solidarity with refugees, alongside 200 other cities in the world.

Please consider supporting #WithRefugees Campaign by joining the Cities #WithRefugees initiative. The Cities #WithRefugees initiative seeks to amplify the efforts of cities who are creating inclusive communities where everyone can live in safety, become self-reliant, and contribute to and participate in their local community.

UNHCR through its #WithRefugees Campaign will showcase the solidarity that so many cities around the world have demonstrated towards refugees. The Cities #WithRefugees statement of solidarity was released on World Refugee Day 2018 on June 20th with 60 cities signing the statement. Cities can continue to sign onto the document to send a strong message of global grass roots solidarity for families forced to flee here.

Cities #WithRefugees Statement

We, mayors and local authorities from around the world, stand #WithRefugees. The role of towns, cities and counties in creating inclusive communities and promoting hope has never been as important.

Today, over 25 million people worldwide are living outside their countries to escape violence and persecution. Refugees leave nearly everything behind to seek safety: their homes, their jobs, and sometimes even their families. Despite the unimaginable sacrifices refugees make to find safety, many keep their hopes and dreams for the future. Refugees' will to survive and their drive to help their families and communities prosper are not easily extinguished by adversity.

When refugees arrive to a new country, nearly two out of three settle in an urban area. As cities, we are undeniably at the forefront of refugee crises, and our communities benefit from their tenacity and courage. Welcoming refugees creates opportunities for economic, civic and social growth. The diversity of experiences and ideas refugees bring spurs creativity and innovation. For example, both Albert Einstein and Sergey Brin were refugees. Their contributions did not just change our communities; they changed the course of human history.

As cities, we are constantly working to improve our infrastructure, services, and administrative systems in order to meet governance challenges, such as incorporating large inflows of new residents. This work is critical to our shared future. As leaders, we have a responsibility to receive and include new residents with care in order for our cities to become stronger and more resilient to change. Ultimately, those among us who rise to this call for leadership will reap the benefits of societies that are the most productive, the most modern, and the most filled with promise.

As local authorities, we shoulder the enormous responsibility of providing access to housing, health care, education, skills training, and employment opportunities for newcomers and long-term residents alike. Solutions to refugee crises start at the local level and require that everyone plays a part: every city, every neighbourhood, and every individual can contribute. As leaders, we must create spaces where everyone can live in safety, become self-reliant, and contribute to and participate in their local community.

The vital work that cities do can be a model for others, forging a path forward as national governments create and adopt a Global Compact on Refugees to strengthen international crisis response. Our work as mayors and city authorities is primarily local, but when we are united in purpose with each other and our refugee residents, the impact of our solidarity will be global.

Join us and stand #WithRefugees. Together we can make a world of difference.
