Hi Holger

I know you are busy and the information in the local "fish wrapper" could not have made your job any easier. My question has been answered and I thank you for clearing the confusion up.

Dear Scott:

As discussed this morning on the telephone, the proposed new Zoning Bylaw does not limit or prohibit the parking of recreational vehicles on the driveway of a single-family residential property.

If you still want to view the proposed new Zoning Bylaw, it can be found on the City's web site (www.richmond.ca) under City Services > Planning & Zoning > Current Planning Projects > Zoning Bylaw (Section 6.4.5 on travel trailers and boats can be found on page 97 on this website link or on page 6-3 of the bylaw).

I understand that a new bylaw is before council that would limit or prohibit the parking of recreational vehicles on residential property. I would like to look at the proposed bylaw; I have searched the City website to no avail. Could you tell me where to find it or email it to me?
Thank you

Scott Stewart
