The Edwardian Cottage Visit around 2015

About Hiroyuki Koyanagi

Hiroyuki Koyanagi, my Japanese Canadian grandfather, took around one thousand photos of BC from 1920-1940. These photos depict life in and around Richmond during the height of BC's coal, lumber, and fish industries and the treatment of Japanese Canadians.

I was able to document some history through a series of photographs and gain a glimpse into the lives of those who lived in the area. What he left behind is a treasure trove of information. When he left, he left a lot of information, including a camera. He found opportunities to take photos that formed a history of the area.

About the Exhibit

The images shown for this exhibit reflect Japanese Canadian history in Richmond, capturing the lives of those who lived in the area. It is a testament to the lives of those who lived in the area, and the lives of those who lived in the area.

My hope is that this exhibition will provide opportunity for visitors to reflect on the profound change in our society over the past 100 years. -Kevin Takahide Lee
