Findings Of Fact

Following the submission of a staff report to the General Purposes Committee on the Red Palms Liquor Food Primary Liquor Licence Amendment dated September 17, 2009, the Joint Investigation Team (JIT) of the RCMP, Provincial Liquor Inspector and the City's Business Licence Inspector attended the premises of Red Palms Malaysian Pondock Inc. on September 27, 2009 at 00:44 hours.

During this inspection the RCMP and the Liquor Inspector addressed two incidents of concern:

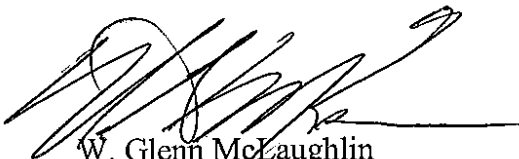

- A male patron noted leaving the premises was found to be intoxicated by the RCMP and given a 24-hour Driving Licence suspension.
- A check of the business days' receipts by the Provincial Liquor Inspector noted the food/liquor ratio of sales for that day was primarily for liquor sales. The restaurant was advised that they must primarily be engaged in the service of food at all times and can never shift focus.
