

ONLINE VOTING RECORD

Direct staff to find options for a public registry of City Council members voting records that clearly and simply allows interested parties to access the voting record of each councillor and the mayor and bring the options back to council for consideration.

Rational: Currently people interested in the voting record of council have to go through tedious and often confusing minutes of each public meeting in order to access the voting records. The public find it difficult to follow the process and subsequently understand the results are various issues that have come before council.

Providing current and easy to understand information would enhance transparency and confidence in City Council and allow the public to better understand the decisions made at council meetings.

In Toronto the public can see the description of the agenda item and the vote by simply clicking a button the attached information was found on this web site <http://app.toronto.ca/tmmis/getAdminReport.do>.

In Vancouver a simple tab on the web site allows the public to quickly and easily access voting records on all agenda items chronologically for all council
