Analysis

Activities and Noteworthy Files

Stolen Vehicle

On November 29, 2017, Richmond RCMP observed a stolen vehicle with three occupants in a parking lot located in the 11600 block of Steveston Highway. The vehicle had earlier been reported stolen from Coquitlam. The police observed the vehicle perform a U-turn on Highway 99 which resulting in a collision with a cement barrier. All three occupants were arrested and transported to hospital due to the collision. Charges are pending.

Illegal Distribution of Liquor

On December 3, 2017, Richmond RCMP Anti-Gang Unit identified and shut down an illegal drinking establishment in the 11700 block of Voyageur Way. The two-level unit, similar to a karaoke lounge, was openly serving alcohol. Illegal activity included gambling, fire hazards, overcrowding, unlicensed liquor service and impaired drivers. The RCMP works closely with the City of Richmond's Community Bylaws and Business Licencing departments to provide a safer community through establishment checks.

Rollover Fatality

On December 19, 2017, at 11:30 a.m., Richmond RCMP responded to a serious motor vehicle incident at River Road and No. 8 Road. A vehicle was discovered partially submerged in a ditch after colliding with a hydro pole. The driver managed to escape from the vehicle and the passenger was rescued from the vehicle with the assistance of the driver and several good samaritans. Both occupants were transported to hospital but unfortunately by late afternoon the passenger succumbed to his injuries. Neither alcohol nor drugs are believed to be factors in this collision; however road conditions are being considered a factor. The fatality remains under investigation.

Retail Theft

In December 2017, Richmond RCMP officers from the Prolific Offender Suppression Team and 15 Loss Prevention Officers teamed up to address retail theft. Together they focused on businesses along the No. 3 Road corridor looking for retail theft offenders. Over the course of two days, 12 thieves were caught; one prohibited driver was apprehended twice; another suspect was found breaking into a vehicle; and two suspects were arrested on outstanding warrants.

Pedestrian Collision

On December 27, 2017, Richmond RCMP responded to an accident involving a pedestrian at Garden City Road and Sea Island Way. A 27 year old female pedestrian was struck by a semi-tractor power unit and rushed to hospital with life threatening injuries. The female has since succumbed to her injuries. The fatality is being investigated.
