Staff Report

Origin

Lucas (Zhi Chao) Li (the “Applicant”) has applied for a business licence to operate Lulu Bed and Breakfast at 9371 Beckwith Road (the “Property”). The application for a licence was rejected because the Applicant is not the individual owner of the Property. Zoning Bylaw No. 8500 section 5.5.3A. states that:

“A bed and breakfast use is permitted only in a single detached housing dwelling unit where the operator is the individual registered owner of the dwelling...”

Individual registered owner is further defined as:

means with respect to land, any individual person who is:
a) the registered owner of an estate in fee simple; or
b) the tenant for life under a registered life estate.

The Property is owned by 1074193 B.C. LTD, registered to 8171 Claybrook Road in Richmond (Land Title record shown Attachment 1). The Applicant is one of two directors (company search shown in Attachment 2), neither of which list the Property as their contact address according to the company search.

The Applicant has requested that Council reconsider the decision to refuse the business licence application (Attachment 3). Under the Community Charter Section 60 - Business licence authority:

60 (5) If a municipal officer or employee exercises authority to grant, refuse, suspend or cancel a business licence, the applicant or licence holder who is subject to the decision is entitled to have the council reconsider the matter.

Analysis

First Application for a Business Licence

The Applicant originally made an application for a business licence for a bed and breakfast business in October 2018 but was rejected at that time due to building deficiencies and work required to comply with the Building Regulation Bylaw No. 7320. The Applicant subsequently applied for a Plumbing permit and received approval for the work undertaken.

Second Application for a Business Licence

Having complied with some of the building regulations, the Applicant again applied for a business licence. It was at this time that staff reviewed all other requirements and rejected the licence because the Property is owned by a corporation and not an individual person. The corporation and both directors are registered at addresses other than the Property that is the subject of the proposed bed and breakfast operation.

Regulations for Bed and Breakfast Businesses

Regulations for bed and breakfast businesses were updated in 2017. As part of the updates, Council directed staff to draft regulations such that bed and breakfast businesses would be operated only by property owners who also reside at the property. The regulations also make clear that corporations may not be operators of bed and breakfast businesses. This is clarified in Zoning Bylaw No. 8500, section 5.5.3 and 5.5.3A:

5.5.3 A bed and breakfast use is permitted only in a single detached housing dwelling unit that is the principal residence of the operator, where the operator is an individual and not a corporation.

5.5.3A. A bed and breakfast use is permitted only in a single detached housing dwelling unit where the operator is the individual registered owner of the dwelling or the individual registered owner's family member.

In addition to the regulations specific to bed and breakfast businesses, there are other regulations that apply to all businesses. In this case, there was an inspection of the home proposed to host the business and staff identified several building deficiencies. Staff acknowledge that work is underway to resolve the deficiencies but not all deficiencies were resolved at the time of writing this report.

The Applicant has further indicated that his address as listed on the company summary is out of date and that he now resides at the Property (in compliance with 5.5.3). However, even with the address updated for the Applicant (who is also the operator), the application remains in non-compliance with section 5.5.3A as the Applicant is not the individual registered owner as defined in the Zoning Bylaw.

Financial Impact

None.

Conclusion

The application for a business licence for Lulu Bed and Breakfast was rejected because it does not comply with section 5.5.3A of Zoning Bylaw No. 8500. The Applicant has requested that this decision be reconsidered by Council under the authority granted in the Community Charter.

主题: 9371 Beckwith Rd. Bed and Breakfast License appeal

Hello City of Richmond,

I am writing to appeal the rejection of my application to apply for a bed and breakfast license for my home at 9371 Beckwith Rd. The original rejection reasoning was because the building contained "building and plumbing deficiencies". I have attached the letter the City sent me in this email. I fixed up the problem with all the necessary adjustments made to the home. I have attached the structural engineer's approval letter and the complete electrical inspection. The plumbing inspection has been passed as well. I have attached a copy of the email I've sent the municipal officer. The Richmond officer, Mr. Brodie Ketelsen, called me a few days later and told me that my application is rejected again, but this time for a different reason. Although I have fixed the building and plumbing deficiencies, the ownership name is in my company name and not my personal name. Even though this is my principal residence, the City would not grant a bed and breakfast under company name. I was completely surprised because before I had submit an application, I consulted the Richmond City Hall front desk lady to make sure having the property under company name would not be a problem for licensing. Also, on the first inspection, Mr. Brodie Ketelsen, listed all the problems and I made sure with him that once the building and plumbing deficiencies were fixed, the license would be granted. Unfortunately, he brought up a new problem when I got the initial problems fixed up. I can't possibly afford the property transfer tax to change the property ownership given that I've already spent over $30,000 to fix up the building and plumbing deficiencies. I invested my savings to bring the residence up to code confidently because I thought the bed and breakfast license would be granted if I did this. My company, 1074193 BC LTD., is a small business company and I'm the sole director of this company. I hope the City would reconsider.

Thank you,

Lucas
